Robby Dawkins embraces not only a theology of God's presence and power, but he is a "practitioner" of the kingdom equipping others to participate in the ministry of Jesus today - Healing, Deliverance, Prophetic Evangelism, Ministry of his Presence.

Robby is a fifth generation pastor who was born to missionary parents in Japan. He grew up seeing lives transformed by the power of God in poor urban communities. Robby had served as a youth pastor for 12 years for before he and his wife Angie planted a Vineyard church in the downtown area of Aurora, Illinois (Chicago area). Robby ministers extensively in the U.S. and in over 30 countries equipping churches in Power Evangelism. He was most recently featured in the movie Furious Love in 2010.

Testimony: "In an effort to rekindle a zeal for the things of the Holy Spirit here in the Boise Vineyard we invited Robby and Angie Dawkins to minister among us for four days. Robby was an empowered breath of fresh air for the Boise Vineyard. But more than that, I believe he was a blessing for the Vineyard movement at a time such as this." Tri Robinson

THE NEVERCLAIM was birthed out of a desire to see people come to a real encounter with God that would inspire life change. "When people encounter God they can't help but be faced with two realities. 1) I am loved far beyond what I have ever imagined. 2) This love is worth giving all of myself to. This band wishes to lose claim of our lives and surrender our purpose to God," says lead singer and songwriter Jeremiah Carlson. "We truly see our music simply as a tool to inspire a generation to live powerful, selfless lives inspired by intimacy with God."
